WOMEN'S EQUALITY

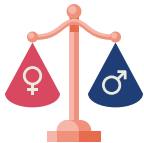

For decades, women not only created history, they also wrote it. They fought for their rights, showed courage and strength to make their voices heard and united so that their daughters never suffer the same discrimination again. All over the world, women have played and play a central role in enabling our societies to thrive.

Žene za Žene International, through “Sist’Her Sarajevo” center, continues to courageously empower women in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Change will come from women themselves, from their power to recognize themselves as bearers of their own transformation and the transformation of their communities.

Every room in “Sist’Her Sarajevo” bears the name of a woman who throughout history has significantly contributed or is still contributing to the equality of women in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the world.

Organizations

Empow'Her Global Paris, France

Empow'Her is an international organization that dates back to 2013 and is dedicated to promoting entrepreneurship as a powerful tool for gender equality throughout the world. Inequality in access to economic resources and entrepreneurship is part of gender discrimination, and the focus is the transformation of the entrepreneurial sector into a more inclusive ecosystem, where women can fully realize their potential, which leads to a change in social paradigms.

The organization operates on an individual, social and economic level through the development of support programs for women entrepreneurs, places dedicated to women's empowerment and wider activities to encourage gender equality. Sis't'Her Sarajevo is the newest center within the Empow'Her network, dedicated to gender equality.
